

rec'd 12 July 87

EXECUTIVE SECRETARIAT

ROUTING SLIP

TO:		ACTION	INFO	DATE	INITIAL
1	DCI		✓	19 JUL 1987
2	DDCI
3	EXDIR
4	D/ICS
5	DDI
6	DDA
7	DDO
8	DDS&T
9	Chm/NIC
10	GC
11	IG
12	Compt
13	D/Pers
14	D/OLL
15	D/PAO		✓
16	SA/IA
17	AO/DCI
18	C/IPD/OIS
19
20
21
22

SUSPENSE _____ Date _____

Remarks

DCI
EXEC
REG

ES
Executive Secretary

7/17/87
Date

Office of the President

P.O. Box 6001
Morgantown, West Virginia
26506-6001

West Virginia
University

July 10, 1984

FILE

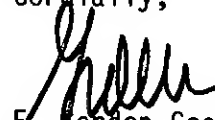

The Honorable William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, DC 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

Thank you very much for your kind note of June 28. It was a pleasure to be briefed by the CIA. My impressions were strong and positive about the agency and its importance to this country and its future. I can only suggest that you continue these briefing sessions, and often.

My best wishes.

Cordially,

E. Gordon Gee
President

md

L-305

Approved For Release 2008/10/21 : CIA-RDP86M00886R002000130001-8

University

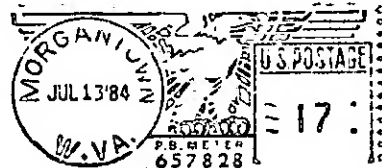

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
MORGANTOWN, WV 26506-6001

70001000

122

132

PREPAID
FIRST CLASS

The Honorable William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, DC 20505

Approved For Release 2008/10/21 : CIA-RDP86M00886R002000130001-8

EXECUTIVE SECRETARIAT
ROUTING SLIP

TO:

		ACTION	INFO	DATE	INITIAL
1	DCI		✓
2	DDCI
3	EXDIR
4	D/ICS
5	DDI
6	DDA
7	DDO
8	DDS&T
9	Chm/NIC
10	GC
11	IG
12	Compt
13	D/Pers
14	D/OLL
15	D/PAO		✓
16	SA/IA
17	AO/DCI
18	C/IPD/OIS
19
20
21
22
SUSPENSE		Date _____

Remarks

JSK
Executive Secretary

7/13/84
Date

WILLIAMS COLLEGE WILLIAMSTOWN, MASSACHUSETTS 01267

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

July 10, 1984

Mr. William J. Casey, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Executive Registry
84-2116/5

ATT. PAO 84-0170/1-22
~~1-17-22~~

Dear Mr. Casey:

My recent visit with you and your colleagues was an exceptionally interesting and informative discussion. Thank you for your hospitality and for the generous amount of time you took to help me and the other college and university presidents become better acquainted with the Agency's work.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

John W. Chandler
John W. Chandler

JWC:mdw

--

STAT

L-305

Att. PA084-0170/17-22-84
ER 84-2116/1-4
PA084-0170/11-15

Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D.C. 20505

28 JUN 1984

Very Rev. Joseph T. Cahill, C.M.
President
St. John's University
Grand Central and Utopia Parkways
Jamaica, N.Y. 11439

Dear Father Cahill:

I am most grateful to you for visiting us on June 15th. It was very generous of you to spare us a full day in what I know is an exceedingly busy schedule. I hope that during your time with us you acquired a better understanding of who we are and what we really do. I welcomed, too, our brief, post-meeting chat; I am convinced St. John's is in good hands and, yes, we will look toward more active recruiting there.

If you have any post-visit reflections about our discussions here, I would appreciate your sharing them with me. I am convinced that the Intelligence Community and the institutions of higher education in the United States, working together, can do much to enhance our nation's security.

I wish you the very best for the future.

Sincerely,

/s/ Bill

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

DCI
EXEC
REG

L-305

Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D. C. 20505

28 JUN 1984

Dr. John W. Chandler, President
Williams College
Williamstown, MA 01267

Dear Dr. Chandler:

I am most grateful to you for visiting us on June 15th. It was very generous of you to spare us a full day in what I know is an exceedingly busy schedule. I hope that during your time with us you acquired a better understanding of who we are and what we really do.

If you have any post-visit reflections about our discussions here, I would appreciate your sharing them with me. I am convinced that the Intelligence Community and the institutions of higher education in the United States, working together, can do much to enhance our nation's security.

I wish you the very best for the future.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

DCI
EXEC
REG

Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D. C. 20505

28 JUN 1984

Dr. John W. Cole, Jr., President
West Virginia State College
Institute, West Virginia 25112

Dear Dr. Cole:

I am most grateful to you for visiting us on June 15th. It was very generous of you to spare us a full day in what I know is an exceedingly busy schedule. I hope that during your time with us you acquired a better understanding of who we are and what we really do.

If you have any post-visit reflections about our discussions here, I would appreciate your sharing them with me. I am convinced that the Intelligence Community and the institutions of higher education in the United States, working together, can do much to enhance our nation's security.

I wish you the very best for the future.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

DCI
EXEC
REG

Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D. C. 20505

28 JUN 1984

Dr. E. Gordon Gee, President
West Virginia University
Morgantown, West Virginia 26506

Dear Dr. Gee:

I am most grateful to you for visiting us on June 15th. It was very generous of you to spare us a full day in what I know is an exceedingly busy schedule. I hope that during your time with us you acquired a better understanding of who we are and what we really do.

If you have any post-visit reflections about our discussions here, I would appreciate your sharing them with me. I am convinced that the Intelligence Community and the institutions of higher education in the United States, working together, can do much to enhance our nation's security.

I wish you the very best for the future.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D. C. 20505

28 JUN 1984

Dr. J. Harvey Saunders, President
Westminster College
Fulton, MO 65251

Dear Harvey:

I am most grateful to you for visiting us on June 15th. It was very generous of you to spare us a full day in what I know is an exceedingly busy schedule. I hope that during your time with us you acquired a better understanding of who we are and what we really do. I was genuinely pleased to be able to see you again, although I regret our inability to "surface" the single Westminster alumnus in our ranks; I hope that will be possible some day in the future.

If you have any post-visit reflections about our discussions here, I would appreciate your sharing them with me. I am convinced that the Intelligence Community and the institutions of higher education in the United States, working together, can do much to enhance our nation's security.

I wish you the very best for the future.

Sincerely,

WJC

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D. C. 20505

20 JUN 1984

Dr. Michael I. Sovern, President
Columbia University
116th and Broadway
New York, N. Y. 10027

Dear Dr. Sovern:

I am most grateful to you for visiting us on June 15th. It was very generous of you to spare us a full day in what I know is an exceedingly busy schedule. I hope that during your time with us you acquired a better understanding of who we are and what we really do.

If you have any post-visit reflections about our discussions here, I would appreciate your sharing them with me. I am convinced that the Intelligence Community and the institutions of higher education in the United States, working together, can do much to enhance our nation's security.

I wish you the very best for the future.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

DCI
EXEC
REG

Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D. C. 20505

28 JUN 1984

Dr. Barbara S. Uehling, Chancellor
University of Missouri-Columbia
Columbia, Missouri 65211

Dear Dr. Uehling:

I am most grateful to you for visiting us on June 15th. It was very generous of you to spare us a full day in what I know is an exceedingly busy schedule. I hope that during your time with us you acquired a better understanding of who we are and what we really do.

If you have any post-visit reflections about our discussions here, I would appreciate your sharing them with me. I am convinced that the Intelligence Community and the institutions of higher education in the United States, working together, can do much to enhance our nation's security.

I wish you the very best for the future.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Letters to University Presidents Acknowledging Visit
15 June (signed by Mr. Casey)

Distribution:

Original - Addressee

1 - ER

1 - PAO Registry (84-0170 (16-22)

1 - PAO

2 - CAA/PAO

CAA/PAO: (21 June 84)

STAT

EXECUTIVE SECRETARIAT
ROUTING SLIP

TO:

		ACTION	INFO	DATE	INITIAL
1	DCI		✓
2	DDCI
3	EXDIR
4	D/ICS
5	DDI
6	DDA
7	DDO
8	DDS&T
9	Chm/NIC
10	GC
11	IG
12	Compt
13	D/Pers
14	D/OLL
15	D/PAO		✓
16	SA/IA
17	AO/DCI
18	C/IPD/OIS
19
20
21
22
SUSPENSE		Date _____

Remarks

ABE
Executive Secretary

6/26/84
Date

WESTMINSTER COLLEGE

FULTON, MISSOURI 65251

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

June 20, 1984

Executive Registry

84-2116/4

C
3 July 1984

The Honorable William J. Casey
The Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Bill:

It was nice seeing you last week at C.I.A. Headquarters. The sessions were very informative and the presentations were outstanding. I know that all of us who were present learned a great deal more than we expected to.

Your visit to Westminster is fondly remembered by many here. I know that you realize that you would be a most welcome guest at Westminster at any time. In the meantime thank you again for your hospitality last week.

Sincerely,

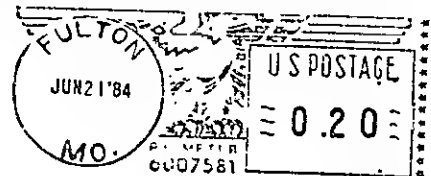

J. Harvey Saunders
President

JHS/dwc

DCI
EXEC
REG

L-305

Approved For Release 2008/10/21 : CIA-RDP86M00886R002000130001-8

The Honorable William J. Casey
The Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D.C. 20505

Approved For Release 2008/10/21 : CIA-RDP86M00886R002000130001-8

Approved For Release 2008/10/21 : CIA-RDP86M00886R002000130001-8

PRESIDENT'S OFFICE
WESTMINSTER COLLEGE
FULTON, MISSOURI
65251

Approved For Release 2008/10/21 : CIA-RDP86M00886R002000130001-8

EXECUTIVE SECRETARIAT ROUTING SLIP

TO:

		ACTION	INFO	DATE	INITIAL
1	DCI
2	DDCI
3	EXDIR
4	D/ICS
5	DDI
6	DDA
7	DDO
8	DDS&T
9	Chm/NIC
10	GC
11	IG
12	Compt
13	D/Pers
14	D/OLL
15	D/PAO		✓
16	SA/IA
17	AO/DCI
18	C/IPD/OIS
19
20
21
22
SUSPENSE		Date

Remarks

[Signature]
Executive Secretary
6/28/84
Date

3637 (10-81)

Office of the President

P.O. Box 6001
Morgantown, West Virginia
26506 6001

West Virginia
University

June 19, 1984

Executive Registry

2116/3

The Honorable William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, DC 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

I want to thank you very much for the opportunity that I had this past week to visit with you and your colleagues at agency headquarters. I found the program both worthwhile and useful. It gave me perspective on the intelligence community which I will share with others.

My very best wishes to you.

Cordially,

E. Gordon Gee
President

am

AH. ER84-2116/1+2
PA084-07011-15

L-305

Executive Registry

84-211612

AM-PAOSV-017011-15

7 June 1984

MEMORANDUM FOR: See Distribution

FROM:

Acting Director, Public Affairs Office

SUBJECT: Visit by University/College Presidents, 15 June 1984

REFERENCE: Memo, Same Subject, dtd 24 May 84

1. Arrangements are now complete for the visit of nine college and university presidents on 15 June. In addition to the eight attendees listed previously in the referent memorandum, the group will include Dr. Robert L. Green, recently inaugurated president of the University of the District of Columbia. A biographic sketch of Dr. Green is attached, together with a revised profile of Dr. Thomas W. Cole, Jr., President, West Virginia State College. Please substitute the revised profile of Dr. Cole for the earlier version.

2. Also attached are the program and schedule for the day; a list of academic and Agency participants; a chart depicting the presidents' seating arrangement in the DCI Conference Room; and a luncheon seating chart. The luncheon group will be augmented by one Agency alumnus or alumna of each of the schools represented, save Westminster College, whose single alumnus in the Agency is unable to attend due to cover considerations.

3. Thank you for your active assistance in this program.

Document becomes UNCLASSIFIED
when CONFIDENTIAL attachment is removed.

CONFIDENTIAL

DCI
EXEC
REG

L-305

Distribution:

DCI
DDCI
EXDir
ER
DDA
DDO
DDI
ADDS&T
C/NCD/DO
D/PAO
DD/Pers
D/EEO
DC/PCS/DO
CAA/PAO

CAA/PAO (7 June 84)

25X1

Page Denied

Next 1 Page(s) In Document Denied

University/College Presidents' Visit

15 June 1984

Program

9:00-9:30 a.m.	Arrival of Visitors	DCI Conference Room
9:30-9:45	Welcome by the Director of Central Intelligence	" " "
9:45-10:30	Introduction to the Agency by the Executive Director	" " "
(Break)
10:40-11:30	Briefing by the Deputy Director for Intelligence	" " "
11:30-12:20 p.m.	Briefing by the Associate Deputy Director for Science and Technology	" " "
(Break)
12:30-1:00 p.m.	Refreshments/Discussion (Academic guests, Agency officials, Alumni/alumnae)	Executive Dining Room
1:00-2:00	Luncheon (Academic guests, Agency officials, alumni/alumnae)	" " "
2:00-3:15	Briefing by Deputy Director for Operations	" " "
(Break)
3:30-4:00	Discussion with the Director, Deputy Director and Executive Director	" " "
4:00 p.m.	Departure of Visitors

University/College Presidents' Visit

15 June 1984

Participants

Academic:

Very. Rev. Joseph T. Cahill, C.M.
Dr. John W. Chandler
Dr. Thomas W. Cole, Jr.
Dr. E. Gordon Gee
Dr. Robert L. Green

Dr. Chase N Peterson
Dr. J. Harvey Saunders
Dr. Michael I. Sovern
Dr. Barbara S. Uehling

President, St. John's University, N.Y.
President, Williams College
President, West Virginia State College
President, West Virginia University
President, University of the District of Columbia
President, University of Utah
President, Westminster College
President, Columbia University
Chancellor, University of Missouri-
Columbia

Agency:

William J. Casey
John N. McMahon

Director of Central Intelligence
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
Executive Director
Deputy Director for Administration
Deputy Director for Operations
Deputy Director for Intelligence
Associate Deputy Director for Science and Technology

STAT
Harry F. Fitzwater
John H. Stein
Robert M. Gates
James V. Hirsch

STAT
George V. Lauder

Director, Public Affairs Office
Deputy Director of Personnel
Director, Equal Employment Opportunity
Deputy Chief, Policy & Coordination Staff,
Directorate of Operations
Coordinator for Academic Affairs,

Page Denied

Next 2 Page(s) In Document Denied

EXECUTIVE SECRETARIAT
ROUTING SLIP

TO:

		ACTION	INFO	DATE	INITIAL
1	DCI
2	DDCI
3	EXDIR
4	D/ICS
5	DDI
6	DDA
7	DDO
8	DDS&T
9	Chm/NIC
10	GC
11	IG
12	Compt
13	D/Pers
14	D/OLL
15	D/PAO	✓
16	SA/IA
17	AO/DCI
18	C/IPD/OIS
19
20
21
22
SUSPENSE		Date _____

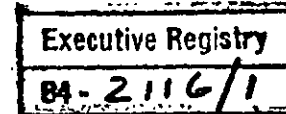

Remarks

 Executive Secretary
 6/1/84
 Date

University of the District of Columbia

Office of the President
4200 Connecticut Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20008

Telephone 202/282-7550

May 30, 1984

AH. PAO 84-0170/1-15

Mr. William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

I am pleased to accept your invitation to visit the CIA Headquarters in Langley, Virginia on June 15, 1984.

I look forward to meeting you and sharing in the informational exchange.

Sincerely,

Robert L. Green
President

L-305

Executive Registry

84-2116

23 May 1984

MEMORANDUM FOR: See Distribution

FROM: Director, Public Affairs Office

SUBJECT: Visit by University/College Presidents, 15 June 1984

1. The DCI will be hosting another meeting, the twelfth, for a small group of college and university presidents on 15 June. Previous meetings have assisted in fostering good relations between this Agency and schools of importance to components in all Directorates. Prospective attendees have been invited on this occasion with the same purpose in mind and have come from nominees submitted by the Office of Personnel, including the Director of Equal Employment Opportunity, [redacted] components within the Directorates of Intelligence and Science and Technology, and the Coordinator for Academic Affairs.

STAT

2. Those who have accepted thus far total eight -- the presidents of Columbia University, St. John's University (N.Y.), University of Utah, Westminster College, West Virginia State College, West Virginia University, Williams College and the chancellor of the University of Missouri at Columbia. Four more are pending but are considered doubtful. Biographies of those who have accepted are attached.

3. The schedule of activities (also attached) is similar to those for past sessions. The Director will greet the guests upon their arrival, to be followed by the Executive Director who will present an overview of the Agency's mission, history and organization. We are also asking that the Deputy Directors for Intelligence, Science and Technology, and Operations, or their designees, present briefings on the activities of their respective Directorates. The briefings, each of which is to be followed by a question-and-answer period, should be as candid as possible, in accordance with the SECRET clearances these visitors will have been granted for the day. As indicated in the schedule, the briefers, supplemented by a number of other Agency officials, are asked to join our guests between 1230 and 1400 for refreshments and informal discussions to be followed by a luncheon hosted by the Executive Director. Following the afternoon briefings, the Director, Deputy Director, and Executive Director will join the Presidents for a final wrap-up session to answer any remaining questions they have and to receive their suggestions and recommendations.

DCI
EXEC
REG

L-305

STAT 4. If any Deputy Director is unable to present his briefing, he is requested to designate a replacement and inform the Coordinator for Academic Affairs, [redacted] Similarly, anyone listed as attending the discussions and luncheon and who finds it impossible to be present should, at his earliest opportunity, contact the Coordinator.

STAT [redacted]
George V. Lauder

Attachments:
As stated

Distribution: (All with attachment)

- 1 - DCI
- 1 - DDCI
- 1 - EX DIR
- 1 - ER
- 1 - DD/A
- 1 - DD/O
- 1 - DD/S&T
- 1 - DD/I
- 1 - C/NCD/DDO
- 1 - D/PERS/DDA
- 1 - D/OEEO/OP/DDA
- 1 - D/PAO
- 1 - DD/PAO
- 2 - CAA/PAO

STAT CAA/PAO: (23 May 84)

Tentative Schedule for University Presidents' Visit
15 June 1984

9:00 - 9:30 a.m.	Arrival of Guests	DCI Conference Room
9:30 - 9:45	Welcome by DCI	" " "
9:45 - 10:30	Introduction to the Agency by Executive Director	" " "
(Break)
10:40 - 11:30	Briefing by the DDI	" " "
11:30 - 12:20	Briefing by the DDS&T	" " "
(Break)
12:30 - 1:00	Refreshments/Discussion (Ex Dir hosting, DDI, DDS&T DDO, DDA, D/PERS, D/EEO, [redacted] DD/PAO, CAA/PAO, selected Agency alumni/ae of presidents' schools)	Executive Dining Room
1:00 - 2:00	Luncheon (Attendees -- 8 guests, 16 officials, as above)	Executive Dining Room
2:00 - 3:20	Briefing by the DDO	DCI Conference Room
(Break)
3:30 - 4:00	Discussion with DCI/DDCI/Ex Dir	" " "
4:00 p.m.	Departure of Guests

STAT

Page Denied

Next 7 Page(s) In Document Denied

Approved For Release 2008/10/21 : CIA-RDP86M00886R002000130001-8

UFG + 2 dys
Back to LAA/PAO
For Dispatch
By DCD

Approved For Release 2008/10/21 : CIA-RDP86M00886R002000130001-8

TRANSMITTAL SLIP		DATE 9 May 1984
TO: ER
ROOM NO.	BUILDING
REMARKS: After Mr. Casey signs - please return originals to CAA/PAO (7B18) for mailing.
FROM: CAA/PAO
ROOM NO.	BUILDING	EXTENSION

Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D. C. 20505

14 MAY 1984

Dr. Barbara S. Uehling, Chancellor
University of Missouri-Columbia
Columbia, MO 65211

Dear Dr. Uehling:

I was delighted to learn that you will be able to accept my invitation to visit me at the Headquarters of the Central Intelligence Agency in McLean, Virginia, on 15 June. A few other college and university presidents will also be present.

I envisage a basically informal meeting beginning at about 9:00 a.m. and continuing to around 4:00 p.m. I hope to greet you upon your arrival and meet with you again prior to your departure. In the interval between those meetings, you will meet and be briefed by a number of senior officials of the Agency on the activities involved in carrying out our assigned role in government.

Out of those exchanges, I would hope that you would find answers to any questions that you might have regarding our work. More importantly, I look forward to receiving your comments and suggestions on how this organization might better accomplish its primary mission of providing our nation's leaders with the best possible intelligence. From our meetings that day, I believe will emerge a greater awareness on the part of all involved of the benefits to be gained for our respective organizations and our nation from the closest possible cooperation in the future.

I am most grateful that you could find time in your busy schedule to join me on 15 June. My Coordinator for Academic Affairs, [redacted] will be pleased to arrange transportation for you to our Headquarters from whatever point in the Washington area you designate and for your return to a point of accommodation or departure upon conclusion of the visit. Please feel free to call upon him for any further details or additional assistance you may require. I look forward enthusiastically to your visit.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

Washington, D. C. 20505

14 MAY 1984

Dr. Michael I. Sovern, President
Columbia University
116th and Broadway
New York, N.Y. 10027

Dear Dr. Sovern:

I was delighted to learn that you will be able to accept my invitation to visit me at the Headquarters of the Central Intelligence Agency in McLean, Virginia, on 15 June. A few other college and university presidents will also be present.

I envisage a basically informal meeting beginning at about 9:00 a.m. and continuing to around 4:00 p.m. I hope to greet you upon your arrival and meet with you again prior to your departure. In the interval between those meetings, you will meet and be briefed by a number of senior officials of the Agency on the activities involved in carrying out our assigned role in government.

Out of those exchanges, I would hope that you would find answers to any questions that you might have regarding our work. More importantly, I look forward to receiving your comments and suggestions on how this organization might better accomplish its primary mission of providing our nation's leaders with the best possible intelligence. From our meetings that day, I believe will emerge a greater awareness on the part of all involved of the benefits to be gained for our respective organizations and our nation from the closest possible cooperation in the future.

I am most grateful that you could find time in your busy schedule to join me on 15 June. My Coordinator for Academic Affairs, [redacted] will be pleased to arrange transportation for you to our Headquarters from whatever point in the Washington area you designate and for your return to a point of accommodation or departure upon conclusion of the visit. Please feel free to call upon him for any further details or additional assistance you may require. I look forward enthusiastically to your visit.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

Washington, D. C. 20505

14 MAY 1984

Lt. Gen. Willard W. Scott, Jr., USA
Superintendent
Building 600
U.S. Military Academy
West Point, N.Y. 10996

Dear General Scott:

I was delighted to learn that you will be able to accept my invitation to visit me at the Headquarters of the Central Intelligence Agency in McLean, Virginia, on 15 June. A few other college and university presidents will also be present.

I envisage a basically informal meeting beginning at about 9:00 a.m. and continuing to around 4:00 p.m. I hope to greet you upon your arrival and meet with you again prior to your departure. In the interval between those meetings, you will meet and be briefed by a number of senior officials of the Agency on the activities involved in carrying out our assigned role in government.

Out of those exchanges, I would hope that you would find answers to any questions that you might have regarding our work. More importantly, I look forward to receiving your comments and suggestions on how this organization might better accomplish its primary mission of providing our nation's leaders with the best possible intelligence. From our meetings that day, I believe will emerge a greater awareness on the part of all involved of the benefits to be gained for our respective organizations and our nation from the closest possible cooperation in the future.

I am most grateful that you could find time in your busy schedule to join me on 15 June. My Coordinator for Academic Affairs, [redacted] will be pleased to arrange transportation for you to our Headquarters from whatever point in the Washington area you designate and for your return to a point of accommodation or departure upon conclusion of the visit. Please feel free to call upon him for any further details or additional assistance you may require. I look forward enthusiastically to your visit.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey
William J. Casey

Director of Central Intelligence

Washington, D. C. 20505

14 MAY 1984

Dr. J. Harvey Saunders, President
Westminster College
Fulton, MO. 65251

Dear Harvey:

I was delighted to learn that you will be able to accept my invitation to visit me at the Headquarters of the Central Intelligence Agency in McLean, Virginia, on 15 June. A few other college and university presidents will also be present.

I envisage a basically informal meeting beginning at about 9:00 a.m. and continuing to around 4:00 p.m. I hope to greet you upon your arrival and meet with you again prior to your departure. In the interval between those meetings, you will meet and be briefed by a number of senior officials of the Agency on the activities involved in carrying out our assigned role in government.

Out of those exchanges, I would hope that you would find answers to any questions that you might have regarding our work. More importantly, I look forward to receiving your comments and suggestions on how this organization might better accomplish its primary mission of providing our nation's leaders with the best possible intelligence. From our meetings that day, I believe will emerge a greater awareness on the part of all involved of the benefits to be gained for our respective organizations and our nation from the closest possible cooperation in the future.

I am most grateful that you could find time in your busy schedule to join me on 15 June. My Coordinator for Academic Affairs, [redacted] will be pleased to arrange transportation for you to our Headquarters from whatever point in the Washington area you designate and for your return to a point of accommodation or departure upon conclusion of the visit. Please feel free to call upon him for any further details or additional assistance you may require. I look forward enthusiastically to your visit.

Sincerely,

7s/ William J. Casey

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

STAT
STAT

Washington, D. C. 20505

14 MAY 1984

Dr. Chase N. Peterson, President
University of Utah
Salt Lake City, Utah 84112

Dear Dr. Peterson:

I was delighted to learn that you will be able to accept my invitation to visit me at the Headquarters of the Central Intelligence Agency in McLean, Virginia, on 15 June. A few other college and university presidents will also be present.

I envisage a basically informal meeting beginning at about 9:00 a.m. and continuing to around 4:00 p.m. I hope to greet you upon your arrival and meet with you again prior to your departure. In the interval between those meetings, you will meet and be briefed by a number of senior officials of the Agency on the activities involved in carrying out our assigned role in government.

Out of those exchanges, I would hope that you would find answers to any questions that you might have regarding our work. More importantly, I look forward to receiving your comments and suggestions on how this organization might better accomplish its primary mission of providing our nation's leaders with the best possible intelligence. From our meetings that day, I believe will emerge a greater awareness on the part of all involved of the benefits to be gained for our respective organizations and our nation from the closest possible cooperation in the future.

I am most grateful that you could find time in your busy schedule to join me on 15 June. My Coordinator for Academic Affairs, [redacted] will be pleased to arrange transportation for you to our Headquarters from whatever point in the Washington area you designate and for your return to a point of accommodation or departure upon conclusion of the visit. Please feel free to call upon him for any further details or additional assistance you may require. I look forward enthusiastically to your visit.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

Washington, D. C. 20505

14 MAY 1984

Dr. Thomas W. Cole, Jr., President
West Virginia State College
Institute, West Virginia 25112

Dear Dr. Cole:

I was delighted to learn that you will be able to accept my invitation to visit me at the Headquarters of the Central Intelligence Agency in McLean, Virginia, on 15 June. A few other college and university presidents will also be present.

I envisage a basically informal meeting beginning at about 9:00 a.m. and continuing to around 4:00 p.m. I hope to greet you upon your arrival and meet with you again prior to your departure. In the interval between those meetings, you will meet and be briefed by a number of senior officials of the Agency on the activities involved in carrying out our assigned role in government.

Out of those exchanges, I would hope that you would find answers to any questions that you might have regarding our work. More importantly, I look forward to receiving your comments and suggestions on how this organization might better accomplish its primary mission of providing our nation's leaders with the best possible intelligence. From our meetings that day, I believe will emerge a greater awareness on the part of all involved of the benefits to be gained for our respective organizations and our nation from the closest possible cooperation in the future.

I am most grateful that you could find time in your busy schedule to join me on 15 June. My Coordinator for Academic Affairs, [redacted] will be pleased to arrange transportation for you to our Headquarters from whatever point in the Washington area you designate and for your return to a point of accommodation or departure upon conclusion of the visit. Please feel free to call upon him for any further details or additional assistance you may require. I look forward enthusiastically to your visit.

Sincerely,

7s/ William J. Casey
William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

STAT
SIAI

Washington, D. C. 20505

14 MAY 1984

Dr. John W. Chandler, President
Williams College
Williamstown, MA 01267

Dear Dr. Chandler:

I am delighted to learn that you will be able to find time in your busy schedule to accept my invitation to visit the Headquarters of the Central Intelligence Agency in McLean, Virginia on 15 June. I was disappointed you were unable to come last year and am pleased that this year's date is more convenient for you.

Our meeting will include a few other college and university presidents and will be informal, beginning about 9:00 a.m. and continuing to around 4:00 p.m. In addition to myself, you will meet and be briefed by a number of senior officials of the Agency about our assigned mission and activities within the U.S. Government. There will be opportunity throughout for frank discussion.

The comments of prior participants have been highly positive, and my associates and myself have benefited from the comments and suggestions offered by our guests both on how we in the Agency could do our job better and how we could further improve relations with academe.

My Coordinator for Academic Affairs, [redacted] [redacted] will be pleased to arrange transportation for you to our Headquarters from whatever point in the Washington area you designate, and for your return to a point of accommodation or departure upon conclusion of the meeting. I look forward enthusiastically to your visit.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

Washington, D. C. 20505

14 MAY 1984

The V. Rev. Joseph T. Cahill, C.M.
President
St. John's University
Grand Central and Utopia Parkways
Jamaica, N.Y. 11439

Dear Father Cahill:

I was delighted to learn that you will be able to accept my invitation to visit me at the Headquarters of the Central Intelligence Agency in McLean, Virginia, on 15 June. A few other college and university presidents will also be present.

I envisage a basically informal meeting beginning at about 9:00 a.m. and continuing to around 4:00 p.m. I hope to greet you upon your arrival and meet with you again prior to your departure. In the interval between those meetings, you will meet and be briefed by a number of senior officials of the Agency on the activities involved in carrying out our assigned role in government.

Out of those exchanges, I would hope that you would find answers to any questions that you might have regarding our work. More importantly, I look forward to receiving your comments and suggestions on how this organization might better accomplish its primary mission of providing our nation's leaders with the best possible intelligence. From our meetings that day, I believe will emerge a greater awareness on the part of all involved of the benefits to be gained for our respective organizations and our nation from the closest possible cooperation in the future.

I am most grateful that you could find time in your busy schedule to join me on 15 June. My Coordinator for Academic Affairs, [redacted] will be pleased to arrange transportation for you to our Headquarters from whatever point in the Washington area you designate and for your return to a point of accommodation or departure upon conclusion of the visit. Please feel free to call upon him for any further details or additional assistance you may require. I look forward enthusiastically to your visit.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

Washington, D. C. 20505

14 MAY 1984

Dr. Walter L. Smith, President
Florida A. & M. University
Tallahassee, FL 32307

Dear Dr. Smith:

Relations between the Intelligence and Academic Communities in the United States have traditionally been close. Academicians played a prominent role in the creation of the Central Intelligence Agency, as they had in the establishment of its predecessor, the Office of Strategic Services. Many of those who came from the campuses to assist in the founding of those organizations remained here to complete distinguished careers as intelligence officers. Over the years, we in this Agency have relied on the colleges and universities as the almost exclusive sources of recruitment for our professional staff personnel. We have also established contractual relationships with both academic institutions and individual scholars to assist us in our analytic effort. In turn, we believe that our academic counterparts have profited from the exchange of information and insight that results from these contractual relationships. Additionally, in recent years we have made a number of our unclassified reports and statistical summaries available for use by those in academe. The relationship, in short, has been symbiotic, truly beneficial, I believe, to both partners.

As you know, in the late 1960s and 1970s, strains arose between the Agency and many colleges and universities. Fortunately, these strains have dissipated as most of the problems have been resolved. As I stated during my confirmation hearings, I intend to ask American scholars to serve their country by sharing their scholarship and insights with those in the Intelligence Community who are responsible for preparing the analyses used to develop foreign policy and defense strategy.

In an attempt to further the restoration of mutual confidence between the Academic and Intelligence Communities, I am inviting a small number of college and university chief executives, including you, to join with me at CIA Headquarters in Langley, Virginia, on 15 June for an exchange of views. I envisage a basically informal meeting beginning at about 9:00 a.m. and continuing to around 4:00 p.m.

I hope to greet you upon your arrival and meet with you again prior to your departure. In the interval between those meetings, you will meet and be briefed by a number of senior officials of the Agency on the activities involved in carrying out our assigned role in government. Out of these exchanges, I would hope that you would find answers to any questions that you might have regarding our work. More importantly, I look forward to receiving your comments and suggestions on how this organization might better accomplish its primary mission of providing our nation's leaders with the best possible intelligence. From our meetings, that day, I believe will emerge a greater awareness on the part of all involved of the benefits to be gained for our respective organizations and our nation from even closer cooperation in the future.

I am aware of the busy schedule that you undoubtedly face, but I would be most grateful if you could find time to join me on 15 June. My Coordinator for Academic Affairs, Mr. [redacted] has already been in touch with a member of your staff and he will be available to discuss details in connection with your visit if, as I hope, you can accept this invitation.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey
William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

Washington, D. C. 20505

14 MAY 1984

Dr. L. Donald Shields, President
Southern Methodist University
Dallas, TX 75275

Dear Dr. Shields:

Relations between the Intelligence and Academic Communities in the United States have traditionally been close. Academicians played a prominent role in the creation of the Central Intelligence Agency, as they had in the establishment of its predecessor, the Office of Strategic Services. Many of those who came from the campuses to assist in the founding of those organizations remained here to complete distinguished careers as intelligence officers. Over the years, we in this Agency have relied on the colleges and universities as the almost exclusive sources of recruitment for our professional staff personnel. We have also established contractual relationships with both academic institutions and individual scholars to assist us in our analytic effort. In turn, we believe that our academic counterparts have profited from the exchange of information and insight that results from these contractual relationships. Additionally, in recent years we have made a number of our unclassified reports and statistical summaries available for use by those in academe. The relationship, in short, has been symbiotic, truly beneficial, I believe, to both partners.

As you know, in the late 1960s and 1970s, strains arose between the Agency and many colleges and universities. Fortunately, these strains have dissipated as most of the problems have been resolved. As I stated during my confirmation hearings, I intend to ask American scholars to serve their country by sharing their scholarship and insights with those in the Intelligence Community who are responsible for preparing the analyses used to develop foreign policy and defense strategy.

In an attempt to further the restoration of mutual confidence between the Academic and Intelligence Communities, I am inviting a small number of college and university chief executives, including you, to join with me at CIA Headquarters in Langley, Virginia, on 15 June for an exchange of views. I envisage a basically informal meeting beginning at about 9:00 a.m. and continuing to around 4:00 p.m.

I hope to greet you upon your arrival and meet with you again prior to your departure. In the interval between those meetings, you will meet and be briefed by a number of senior officials of the Agency on the activities involved in carrying out our assigned role in government. Out of these exchanges, I would hope that you would find answers to any questions that you might have regarding our work. More importantly, I look forward to receiving your comments and suggestions on how this organization might better accomplish its primary mission of providing our nation's leaders with the best possible intelligence. From our meetings, that day, I believe will emerge a greater awareness on the part of all involved of the benefits to be gained for our respective organizations and our nation from even closer cooperation in the future.

I am aware of the busy schedule that you undoubtedly face, but I would be most grateful if you could find time to join me on 15 June. My Coordinator for Academic Affairs, Mr. [redacted], has already been in touch with a member of your staff and he will be available to discuss details in connection with your visit if, as I hope, you can accept this invitation.

Sincerely,

7s/ William J. Casey

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

Washington, D. C. 20505

14 MAY 1984

Dr. Herbert H. Reynolds, President
Baylor University
Waco, Texas 76798

Dear Dr. Reynolds:

Relations between the Intelligence and Academic Communities in the United States have traditionally been close. Academicians played a prominent role in the creation of the Central Intelligence Agency, as they had in the establishment of its predecessor, the Office of Strategic Services. Many of those who came from the campuses to assist in the founding of those organizations remained here to complete distinguished careers as intelligence officers. Over the years, we in this Agency have relied on the colleges and universities as the almost exclusive sources of recruitment for our professional staff personnel. We have also established contractual relationships with both academic institutions and individual scholars to assist us in our analytic effort. In turn, we believe that our academic counterparts have profited from the exchange of information and insight that results from these contractual relationships. Additionally, in recent years we have made a number of our unclassified reports and statistical summaries available for use by those in academe. The relationship, in short, has been symbiotic, truly beneficial, I believe, to both partners.

As you know, in the late 1960s and 1970s, strains arose between the Agency and many colleges and universities. Fortunately, these strains have dissipated as most of the problems have been resolved. As I stated during my confirmation hearings, I intend to ask American scholars to serve their country by sharing their scholarship and insights with those in the Intelligence Community who are responsible for preparing the analyses used to develop foreign policy and defense strategy.

In an attempt to further the restoration of mutual confidence between the Academic and Intelligence Communities, I am inviting a small number of college and university chief executives, including you, to join with me at CIA Headquarters in Langley, Virginia, on 15 June for an exchange of views. I envisage a basically informal meeting beginning at about 9:00 a.m. and continuing to around 4:00 p.m.

I hope to greet you upon your arrival and meet with you again prior to your departure. In the interval between those meetings, you will meet and be briefed by a number of senior officials of the Agency on the activities involved in carrying out our assigned role in government. Out of these exchanges, I would hope that you would find answers to any questions that you might have regarding our work. More importantly, I look forward to receiving your comments and suggestions on how this organization might better accomplish its primary mission of providing our nation's leaders with the best possible intelligence. From our meetings, that day, I believe will emerge a greater awareness on the part of all involved of the benefits to be gained for our respective organizations and our nation from even closer cooperation in the future.

I am aware of the busy schedule that you undoubtedly face, but I would be most grateful if you could find time to join me on 15 June. My Coordinator for Academic Affairs, Mr. [REDACTED] has already been in touch with a member of your staff and he will be available to discuss details in connection with your visit if, as I hope, you can accept this invitation.

Sincerely,

7s/ William J. Casey
William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

Washington, D. C. 20505

14 MAY 1984

Dr. Miguel A. Nevarez, President
Pan American University
Edinburg, TX 78539

Dear Dr. Nevarez:

Relations between the Intelligence and Academic Communities in the United States have traditionally been close. Academicians played a prominent role in the creation of the Central Intelligence Agency, as they had in the establishment of its predecessor, the Office of Strategic Services. Many of those who came from the campuses to assist in the founding of those organizations remained here to complete distinguished careers as intelligence officers. Over the years, we in this Agency have relied on the colleges and universities as the almost exclusive sources of recruitment for our professional staff personnel. We have also established contractual relationships with both academic institutions and individual scholars to assist us in our analytic effort. In turn, we believe that our academic counterparts have profited from the exchange of information and insight that results from these contractual relationships. Additionally, in recent years we have made a number of our unclassified reports and statistical summaries available for use by those in academe. The relationship, in short, has been symbiotic, truly beneficial, I believe, to both partners.

As you know, in the late 1960s and 1970s, strains arose between the Agency and many colleges and universities. Fortunately, these strains have dissipated as most of the problems have been resolved. As I stated during my confirmation hearings, I intend to ask American scholars to serve their country by sharing their scholarship and insights with those in the Intelligence Community who are responsible for preparing the analyses used to develop foreign policy and defense strategy.

In an attempt to further the restoration of mutual confidence between the Academic and Intelligence Communities, I am inviting a small number of college and university chief executives, including you, to join with me at CIA Headquarters in Langley, Virginia, on 15 June for an exchange of views. I envisage a basically informal meeting beginning at about 9:00 a.m. and continuing to around 4:00 p.m.

I hope to greet you upon your arrival and meet with you again prior to your departure. In the interval between those meetings, you will meet and be briefed by a number of senior officials of the Agency on the activities involved in carrying out our assigned role in government. Out of these exchanges, I would hope that you would find answers to any questions that you might have regarding our work. More importantly, I look forward to receiving your comments and suggestions on how this organization might better accomplish its primary mission of providing our nation's leaders with the best possible intelligence. From our meetings, that day, I believe will emerge a greater awareness on the part of all involved of the benefits to be gained for our respective organizations and our nation from even closer cooperation in the future.

I am aware of the busy schedule that you undoubtedly face, but I would be most grateful if you could find time to join me on 15 June. My Coordinator for Academic Affairs, Mr. [redacted] has already been in touch with a member of your staff and he will be available to discuss details in connection with your visit if, as I hope, you can accept this invitation.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey
William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

Washington, D.C. 20505

14 MAY 1984

Dr. Elizabeth T. Kennan, President
Mount Holyoke College
South Hadley, MA 01075

Dear Dr. Kennan:

Relations between the Intelligence and Academic Communities in the United States have traditionally been close. Academicians played a prominent role in the creation of the Central Intelligence Agency, as they had in the establishment of its predecessor, the Office of Strategic Services. Many of those who came from the campuses to assist in the founding of those organizations remained here to complete distinguished careers as intelligence officers. Over the years, we in this Agency have relied on the colleges and universities as the almost exclusive sources of recruitment for our professional staff personnel. We have also established contractual relationships with both academic institutions and individual scholars to assist us in our analytic effort. In turn, we believe that our academic counterparts have profited from the exchange of information and insight that results from these contractual relationships. Additionally, in recent years we have made a number of our unclassified reports and statistical summaries available for use by those in academe. The relationship, in short, has been symbiotic, truly beneficial, I believe, to both partners.

As you know, in the late 1960s and 1970s, strains arose between the Agency and many colleges and universities. Fortunately, these strains have dissipated as most of the problems have been resolved. As I stated during my confirmation hearings, I intend to ask American scholars to serve their country by sharing their scholarship and insights with those in the Intelligence Community who are responsible for preparing the analyses used to develop foreign policy and defense strategy.

In an attempt to further the restoration of mutual confidence between the Academic and Intelligence Communities, I am inviting a small number of college and university chief executives, including you, to join with me at CIA Headquarters in Langley, Virginia, on 15 June for an exchange of views. I envisage a basically informal meeting beginning at about 9:00 a.m. and continuing to around 4:00 p.m.

I hope to greet you upon your arrival and meet with you again prior to your departure. In the interval between those meetings, you will meet and be briefed by a number of senior officials of the Agency on the activities involved in carrying out our assigned role in government. Out of these exchanges, I would hope that you would find answers to any questions that you might have regarding our work. More importantly, I look forward to receiving your comments and suggestions on how this organization might better accomplish its primary mission of providing our nation's leaders with the best possible intelligence. From our meetings, that day, I believe will emerge a greater awareness on the part of all involved of the benefits to be gained for our respective organizations and our nation from even closer cooperation in the future.

I am aware of the busy schedule that you undoubtedly face, but I would be most grateful if you could find time to join me on 15 June. My Coordinator for Academic Affairs, Mr. [redacted] has already been in touch with a member of your staff and he will be available to discuss details in connection with your visit if, as I hope, you can accept this invitation.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

Washington, D.C. 20505

14 MAY 1984

Dr. Robert L. Green, President
University of the District of Columbia
4200 Connecticut Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20008

Dear Dr. Green:

Relations between the Intelligence and Academic Communities in the United States have traditionally been close. Academicians played a prominent role in the creation of the Central Intelligence Agency, as they had in the establishment of its predecessor, the Office of Strategic Services. Many of those who came from the campuses to assist in the founding of those organizations remained here to complete distinguished careers as intelligence officers. Over the years, we in this Agency have relied on the colleges and universities as the almost exclusive sources of recruitment for our professional staff personnel. We have also established contractual relationships with both academic institutions and individual scholars to assist us in our analytic effort. In turn, we believe that our academic counterparts have profited from the exchange of information and insight that results from these contractual relationships. Additionally, in recent years we have made a number of our unclassified reports and statistical summaries available for use by those in academe. The relationship, in short, has been symbiotic, truly beneficial, I believe, to both partners.

As you know, in the late 1960s and 1970s, strains arose between the Agency and many colleges and universities. Fortunately, these strains have dissipated as most of the problems have been resolved. As I stated during my confirmation hearings, I intend to ask American scholars to serve their country by sharing their scholarship and insights with those in the Intelligence Community who are responsible for preparing the analyses used to develop foreign policy and defense strategy.

In an attempt to further the restoration of mutual confidence between the Academic and Intelligence Communities, I am inviting a small number of college and university chief executives, including you, to join with me at CIA Headquarters in Langley, Virginia, on 15 June for an exchange of views. I envisage a basically informal meeting beginning at about 9:00 a.m. and continuing to around 4:00 p.m.

I hope to greet you upon your arrival and meet with you again prior to your departure. In the interval between those meetings, you will meet and be briefed by a number of senior officials of the Agency on the activities involved in carrying out our assigned role in government. Out of these exchanges, I would hope that you would find answers to any questions that you might have regarding our work. More importantly, I look forward to receiving your comments and suggestions on how this organization might better accomplish its primary mission of providing our nation's leaders with the best possible intelligence. From our meetings, that day, I believe will emerge a greater awareness on the part of all involved of the benefits to be gained for our respective organizations and our nation from even closer cooperation in the future.

I am aware of the busy schedule that you undoubtedly face, but I would be most grateful if you could find time to join me on 15 June. My Coordinator for Academic Affairs, Mr. [redacted] has already been in touch with a member of your staff and he will be available to discuss details in connection with your visit if, as I hope, you can accept this invitation.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

Washington, D. C. 20505

14 MAY 1984

Dr. E. Gordon Gee, President
West Virginia University
Morgantown, West Virginia 26506

Dear Dr. Gee:

I was disappointed when, due to your busy schedule, you were unable to join with me and a few of your colleagues from other colleges and universities here at our Agency's Headquarters last October. From the comments of the academic participants, I believe they found the program interesting and worthwhile. For my part, I know that I and my associates here at the Central Intelligence Agency benefited from the suggestions proffered by our guests both on how we in the Agency could better do our jobs and how we could further improve relations with academe.

The value of the exchange was such that I am planning to hold a similar meeting with another small group of presidents and chancellors on June 15th. I do hope that you will be able to join with me on that date. The program will be similar to the one last October, i.e., to begin about 9:00 a.m. and continue to around 4.00 p.m., to consist of short meetings with me at the beginning and the end of the day and, between these two meetings, a series of briefings by senior Agency officials on how we carry out our role in government. There will be opportunity for frank discussion throughout.

STAT
STAT
My Coordinator for Academic Affairs, [redacted]
[redacted] has already been in touch with Ms. Kelly of your staff and will be available to discuss details of your visit if, as I hope, you will be able to join me on June 15th.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

L-305

SUBJECT: Letters to College and University Presidents

Distribution:

Original - Addressee

1 - ER

1 - PAO REG. (84-0170)(1-15)

1 - PAO

2 - CAA/PAO

STAT

CAA/PAO: (10 May 84)